[item three]

Disciplinary Information

Vector is required to disclose the pertinent facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events material to a client's evaluation of Tom. There are no disciplinary actions to disclose.

[item four]

Other Business Activities

Vector is required to disclose information regarding any investment-related business or occupation in which Tom is actively engaged.

A conflict of interest exists to the extent that Vector recommends the purchase of insurance products where Kestra Financial, Inc. as the holding company of SNS Financial Group, LLC dba Vector Wealth Management would receive insurance commissions or other additional compensation. Vector has procedures in place to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned. Specifically, Tom's compensation is decoupled from commission or compensation derived from any insurance product recommendation or purchase.

[item five]

Additional Compensation

Vector is required to describe any arrangement under which Tom receives an economic benefit for providing advisory services to someone that is not a client of Vector. Tom is not in any compensatory advisory activities outside of Vector.

[item six]

Supervision

Tom is Chairman of Vector and is generally responsible for his own supervision. Vector monitors his advice in an effort to ensure that investments are suitable for individual clients and consistent with their individual needs, goals, objectives and risk tolerance, as well as any restrictions requested by Vector's clients.

If you have any questions, you may call Thomas Fee or Sharon Calhoun at (612) 378-7560. Vector periodically reviews the advisory activities of Tom, which may include reviewing individual client accounts and correspondence (including emails) sent and received by Tom.
